Become a Hollywood Actors Studio Associate Member!

Becoming a studio member is a prestigious distinction following in the tradition of the famous New York Actor's Studio which Eric Stone became an Honorary Member in 1981. It allowed him to work with other studio members and of course Lee Strasberg was the teacher at the time.

The Hollywood Actors Studio has 2 types of memberships. Honorary and Associate. All Hollywood Actors Studio Honorary Members are performers and or professionals in the entertainment industry with whom Eric Stone or Brad Heller have worked with, coached or directed.

- 1. To become an Honorary Member you must be invited personally by either Eric Stone or Brad Heller.
 - 2. To become an Associate Member you must first apply for an interview with Eric Stone or Brad Heller.
- Upon a successful interview, you will then be requested to show your work. It can be done via YouTube, DVD or in person at the Actors Studio in Hollywood. Upon a successful audition, you will be recommended for Associate membership status.

As an Associate member, you get to be recommended for projects cast at the studio or recommended when studio is contacted by industry professionals. You'll have a profile page on the studio Actor Bank™ home page with a picture, bio, resume and contact info. You also get a recommendation on your Hollywood Actors Studio profile page written by Eric Stone or Brad Heller.

Benefits: The advantages and benefits of becoming a studio member: (1) You will be featured on Hollywood Actors Studio official web site. (2) You will be promoted on the web site as a "recommended" member. (3) You will have priority status for all casting projects contracted by Hollywood Actors Studio and its various industry affiliations. (4) You will have access to our rehearsals facility at reduced membership rates. (5) You will also have access to our casting files if you are casting or producing a project. (6) You will have your profile on our web site including picture, resume, bio, and contact info.
